

SOCIETY WOMEN FEED
STRIKING CLOAK MAKERS

Sandwiches and Milk Dispensed to Crowds in Fifth Avenue
From Autos.

Thousands of strike pickets who have been patrolling the skirt and cloak manufacturing districts were treated to a sandwich and milk breakfast to-day by a number of women representing the Authors' League and the Women's City Club. Food was obtained through voluntary contributions and the two organizations intend, if possible, to continue meals for the pickets every morning.

The chief distributing point was at the southeast corner of Fifth Avenue and Twenty-eighth Street, where Mrs.
Gifford Pinchot, Mrs. J. Sergeant Cram, Mrs. Martha R. Bruer, Miss Fannie Hurst, Mrs. Helen Blankenhorn, Miss Alice Carpenter, Miss Ann Lee and Miss Mary Austin were in charge.
They came in automobiles, bringing boxes of sandwiches and dairy candles with fresh milk. A throng of pickets gathered there to enjoy a real good breakfast. Other gatherings of strikers were fed at different points.

URORS WEEP WITH GIRL
SLAYER, THEN FREE HER

Temporary Insanity Plea, Really an Unwritten Law Appeal, Saves Ida Rich.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—Ida Rich, eleven years old, was acquitted last night of a charge of murdering her sweetheart, Edmund Hauptfuerer, in May, 1915, when he spurned her entreaties to marry her. The jury returned its verdict in less than an hour.

While the defense based its case on a plea of temporary insanity, it virtually involved the unwritten law. During the trial, which began yesterday, deep sympathy for the young woman was displayed by spectators and jurymen.
When she told of the events which led up to the fatal shooting they were in tears.

Girl Held in Subway Station.
Miss Maria Chinney, nineteen years old, of No. 356 West One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Street, was internally injured early to-day at the Fourteenth Street subway station while trying to board a southbound local. She slipped between the platform and the train. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital in an ambulance summoned by Policemen Keatling.

Stricken on Train: Dies Suddenly.
Arthur Daw, fifty-two years old, an accountant, of Bolton Avenue, Pelham, was taken ill suddenly on a New York New Haven and Hartford train at the One Hundred and Thirty-third Street and Willis Avenue Station to-day. He died before the arrival of an ambulance.
